The Best Foot-Stompin' Travelin' Show Ever To Pack A Hot Fiddle And A Bag Of Laughs!

Doc Blakely and Mike Blakely, a father-son team, offer a unique opportunity for meeting planners to give their corporate and convention crowds something really different. That "something different" puts them in a class by themselves with the old-west-style Swing Riders Show, best described as a foot-stompin', barn-burnin' musical comedy.

The Swing Riders have performed with the likes of The Dixie Chicks, Riders in the Sky, Roy Clark, and numerous others. Doc and Mike Blakely team up to produce a memorable show full of inspirational tales of leadership – packed in a musical comedy show like no other. During the trail drives of the Old West, the most respected positions were those of the Swing Riders. These elite cowboys had earned the right to ride at the head of the herd and assumed the responsibility of "swinging" the herd in the right directions, crossing formidable obstacles and reaching destinations others dared not even imagine. Called everything from "Motivational Musicians" to "Inspirational Historians" to "Corporate Cowboys," The Swing Riders are every bit as much fun as they are inspiring.

"I can honestly say that I have never been more impressed with the level of professionalism, cooperation, and 'can-do' attitude as displayed by all members of the Swing Riders from Day One."
